The OIE Network convenes the first OIE Network Expert Seminar - Electoral Democracy in Latin America and the Caribbean, a virtual expert panel focused on the current state of democracy in the region. This space aims to foster a specialized dialogue of a technical and academic nature to delve into the political factors impacting democracies in Latin America and the Caribbean and exchange reflections, assessments, and evaluations on updates and methodological innovations in electoral observation.

SESSION 2

In the second session of the OIE Expert Seminar, a working group will be held on updates and methodological innovations in electoral observation, exploring in detail the METHODOLOGY UPDATE: FROM QUICK COUNT TO PROCESS AND RESULTS VERIFICATION FOR TRANSPARENCY (PRVT).

This session is organized jointly with the National Democratic Institute (NDI).

Theme: METHODOLOGY UPDATE: FROM QUICK COUNT TO PROCESS AND RESULTS VERIFICATION FOR TRANSPARENCY (PRVT).

Speaker

Mario Mitre - National Democratic Institute (NDI)

Senior Advisor for Elections and Political Processes. He has collaborated with civic organizations on five continents to promote and protect the integrity of electoral processes through systematic evidence-based election observation, including Parallel Vote Tabulation (PVT), Sample-Based Observation, Voter List Verifications and research on barriers to full citizens' participation in election processes. Additionally, he has provided technical support to NDI's international electoral observation missions and the work of regional electoral observation networks in Asia, Europe, and Latin America.

Moderated by Alejandra Barrios Cabrera (OIE Network)

Secretary General of the Electoral Integrity Observation Network - OIE Network -, a platform of civil society organizations fully committed to strengthening democracies in Latin America and the Caribbean, which conducts electoral observation and promotes the conduct of fair, free, and transparent elections in the region. She is also the National Director of the Electoral Observation Mission - MOE - of Colombia since its foundation in 2006.
